

for clerkship) (by phone call, voice message, and/or email) advising that a request for absence has been submitted.

5. If a request is refused and the student wishes for an exception to be considered, they should contact the appropriate authority depending on the absence category.

